Charles Rennie Mackintosh
(1868-1928)

Charles Rennie Mackintosh was born in Glasgow, Scotland in 1868. He was a skilled interior designer, painter and decorator who was renowned for his inventive interpretation of Art Nouveau. Much like the American Frank Lloyd Wright, Mackintosh's designs went beyond the architecture of a building, and included specific details and furnishings of the building. Though many of his designs gained popularity around the turn of the 20th century, it should be recognized that much of the designer's acclaim came after his death in 1928.
